

Theorem: Well-Ordering Principle for the Integers

Let S be a set of integers containing one or more integers all of which are greater than some fixed integer. Then S has a least element.