

Principle  $P$  (Theoretical)

If an event  $E$  can occur  $m$  ways out of  $n$  possible equally likely out-comes of a samaple space  $S$ , then the theoretical probability of the event,  $P(E)$ , is given by

$$P(E) = \frac{m}{n}$$